THURSDAY IS SIGN UP DEADLINE
FOR UM VIENNA STUDY PROGRAM

MISSOULA--

University of Montana students who have backgrounds in the German language have until Thursday (Nov. 29) to apply for the University's second annual overseas study program in Vienna, Austria, scheduled for spring quarter 1974.

The program is sponsored by the UM Department of Foreign Languages.

Dr. Dennis R. McCormick, an assistant professor of German at UM, who is coordinator of the Vienna program, said students applying for the overseas program should have five quarters of college German or the equivalent.

McCormick has program applications and additional information at his office, room 218, Turner Hall. His office phone number is 243-4547. Interested students also may apply at the Department of Foreign Languages office, room 313, Liberal Arts Building.
